

ISI Education Group (Tokyo-Japan)

Website	http://www.isi-education.com/
Contact person	Midori Izumi (izumi@isi-global.com)
Brief description of the University	First founded in 1992, ISI Education Group is Japan's first Japanese language school. They currently have two schools, one in Tokyo (including Nagano) and one in Kyoto. Every year, ISI Education Group has been welcoming over 2.000 foreign students a year, providing them with a qualitative environment to study Japanese language and its culture. ISI provides students with programs to learn the Japanese language and learn about Japanese culture, and helps you prepare for a Japanese language test needed to enroll to other universities in the country, or even to apply for jobs in Japan. For more information about their provided programs and courses, visit the following webpage: <ul style="list-style-type: none">• www.isi-education.com/course/
Facts about Tokyo	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• The Eiffel Tower was the inspiration for the Tokyo Tower.• Oshiya, or "pushers," are employed in some of Tokyo's railway stations. These station attendants literally push people onto crowded trains during rush hour.• The longest concert ever held at the Tokyo Dome was Guns N' Roses. On December 18 of 2009, they played for three hours and 37 minutes.• Tokyo's Imperial Palace is generally closed to the public, except on the Emperor's birthday and New Year.

