

Universidad Autónoma de Baja California (Mexicali-Mexico)

Website	http://www.uabc.mx/
Contact person	Montserrat Bernal (bernal.montserrat@uabc.edu.mx)
Brief description of the University	The Exchange and Mobility Program for students of the Autonomous University of Baja California is an institutional program that allows the incorporation of international and / or national experience to its undergraduate and graduate students through the granting of support for the completion of academic stays with the following purposes: <ul style="list-style-type: none">• To take subjects during one or two semesters, either of undergraduate or postgraduate students.• Participate in research projects with credit value.• Perform academic and professional practices with credit worth• Conduct internships in study groups, lectures, inter-semester courses, research stays and language courses with credit value.• Students wishing to stay in another institution of higher education must submit their application on the dates and terms that are considered in the call that the UABC issues every six months. To know if the offer any courses in English, contact the university through the following link: <ul style="list-style-type: none">• http://www.uabc.mx/dir-tel/
Facts about Mexicali	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Mexicali, the capital of Baja California (Norte), is also the second largest city in Baja, with a population rapidly approaching one million.• Mexicali is definitely one of the most racially diverse cities in all of Mexico.• Hunting for pheasant and quail in the fields that lay in the surrounding areas is also very popular here.

